

62.75

=1954=

Br

JAN 20 1954
U. S. Department of Agriculture

FINE
Perennials

hardy plants

PROVIDING

BLOOM AND

COLORFUL
FOLIAGES,

YEAR AFTER YEAR

Order

PERENNIALS

[List of plants in the garden]

- ARABIS ALPINA: (Rock Cress) Small, low growing plant with small flowers about 1/8 inch wide. Leaves small, narrow, pointed. Flowers white in poor soil.
- AUBREYA DEJAC: (Rock Cress) Small, low growing plant with small flowers. edging the rock. Leaves small, narrow, pointed. Flowers white in poor soil.
- DIANTHUS DELTOIDES: (Pink Pinks) Small, low growing plant with small flowers making a neat, compact mass. Leaves small, narrow, pointed. Flowers ordinary Deltoides. 3/4 inch wide. Flowers pink, rose and white. June.
- DIANTHUS LITTLE JOE: (Pink Pinks) Small, low growing plant with small flowers pink, rose and white. June.
- GYPSOPHILLA REPENS ROSEA: (Pink Pinks) Small, low growing plant with small flowers small, pale, rose. Minute claw. Needs full sun. July-August.
- LINUM FLAVUM COMPACTUM: (Yellow Pinks) Small, low growing plant with small flowers yellow transparent. May becoming and rather fleshy.
- PHLOX SUBULATA: (Cushion Phlox) Small, low growing plant with small flowers dense mat, growing to a height of 1/2 inch. Leaves crowded, needle like, 1/2 inch long. Flowers bright Blue, Red, White, Blue. April-May.
- POLYGONUM REYNOUTRIA: (Dwarf Leaf Plant) Small, low growing plant with small flowers handsome ground cover. Pink sprays of flowers. Not to be satisfactory.
- PRIMULA VERIS HYBRIDS, GRAFT GRACEFUL: (Primula) Small, low growing plant with small flowers broadly lance-shaped. Requires moist positions. April-May.
- PRIMULA VERIS HYBRIDS, GRAFT GRACEFUL: (Primula) Small, low growing plant with small flowers broadly lance-shaped. Requires moist positions. April-May.
- PRIMULA VERIS HYBRIDS, GRAFT GRACEFUL: (Primula) Small, low growing plant with small flowers broadly lance-shaped. Requires moist positions. April-May.

SCABROSA FISCHER: (Tall Poppy) Flowers in rows of small, long buds, later the flowering period being soil. 10 inches. ALL SUMMER.

NEURIUM: (Scabrous Poppy) Flowers in cumbent underneath. Flowers hairy. Flowers silvery rose. 8 to 12 inches.

(Tall twigs to slightly below top)

AQUILEGIA BLUE SHADES: (Columbine) Flowers blue, to the branches. They do best in open, sandy soil.
Flowers long spurred, white center. 18 to 24 inches.

AQUILEGIA CHRYSANTHA: A very showy border plant.
and branched. Flowers nearly 3 inches wide, straight, nearly 2 1/2 inches long. May-June.

AQUILEGIA COPPER RED: Coppery red with dark white. 18 to 24 inches. May-June.

AQUILEGIA ROSE QUEEN: Pink shades, long spurred. 18 to 24 inches.

AQUILEGIA SCOTT ELLIOTT HYALINE: White flowers, 18 to 24
24 inches. May-June.

ASCLEPIAS TUBEROSA: (Butterfly Weed) Flowers in leaves coarse, usually short stiff. Flowers bright orange, the cluster being very showy. Flowers soil. 1 to 3 feet. August-September.

ASTILBE FAXAL: Deep green sturdy foliage forming a brilliant carmine red closely set flower cluster "Eye Stopping Color", hardy and early grown. All the period during early summer.

BOCCONIA GORDANA: (Flame Poppy) Indica, striking across border, but it needs plenty of space. They need a good soil. Leaves nearly 8 inches wide, about 7-lobed. Flower cluster about 1 foot long, very June-July.

CALLIOPSIS INVOLUCRATA: (Ripley Yellow) Perennial from a over 24 inches high and inclined to sprawl. Flowers wide, the calyx leafy, the petals oblongish and pale to grow in ordinary garden soil and they prefer dry sites. ALL SUMMER

CHARMANTON'S GARDEN: (Yellow) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHARMANTON'S GARDEN: (Yellow) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHARMANTON'S GARDEN: (Yellow) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHARMANTON'S GARDEN: (Yellow) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

GALANFLOUS COERULEUS: (Blue) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER. Will grow in any ordinary garden soil. Flower heads about 2 inches wide, the rays blue. 18 inches. July.

CHRYSANTHEMUM: We grow a complete line of these fall flowering plants in the following early blooming varieties: Yellow, Bronze, White, Pink, Orange and Red. Ask for our Chrysanthemum list by name varieties.

CHRYSANTHEMUM: These are the late blooming plants, which should have some of these plants in your garden.

CHRYSANTHEMUM BLACKBURN: (Black) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER. This hybrid is quite easy to grow and in the garden it will be found to be deep enough for the roots to be in the soil. Improved hybrid strain of mixed colors. 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHRYSANTHEMUM BRILLIANT: (Black) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER. This plant is very easy to grow and in the garden it will be found to be deep enough for the roots to be in the soil. Improved hybrid strain of mixed colors. 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHRYSANTHEMUM BRILLIANT: (Black) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER. This plant is very easy to grow and in the garden it will be found to be deep enough for the roots to be in the soil. Improved hybrid strain of mixed colors. 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

CHRYSANTHEMUM BRILLIANT: (Black) 18 inches. ALL SUMMER. This plant is very easy to grow and in the garden it will be found to be deep enough for the roots to be in the soil. Improved hybrid strain of mixed colors. 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

GAILLARDIA AUREA PURA: Pure yellow, true stock. 18 inches. ALL SUMMER.

VERONICA LONGIFOLIA (L.) Schell. var. longifolia species, with usually a corolla tube. flower.
border plant, growing and flowering freely in good July August.

